Report on Alumni Contributions to the Library at Ali-Allana College of Pharmacy

The alumni of Ali-Allana College of Pharmacy have once again demonstrated their commitment to giving back to their alma mater by contributing invaluable resources to the college library. This recent donation drive was marked by the addition of a diverse collection of books, each catering to various fields of interest, from professional development to personal growth and inspirational literature.

The donated books include:

Stories of Prophets

Donated by: Khalifa M. Asif

This book enriches the library's collection of inspirational and historical literature, offering timeless lessons and moral insights.

Preparation of Pharmacy Officer

Donated by: Suryawanshi Vishal Shekhar

A practical guide designed to assist students preparing for competitive examinations in the pharmacy field.

55,000 Questions: Pharmacist Solution

Donated by: Qureshi Vakeel

A comprehensive resource for pharmacy students and practitioners, filled with questions and solutions that serve as an essential tool for examination preparation.

The Power of Positive Attitude

Donated by: Patel Seema Ayyub Vali

A motivational book aimed at fostering a positive outlook and resilience among students, which can be especially beneficial during their academic and professional journey.

Think and Grow

Donated by: Noosrat Khan

This book focuses on personal development and success strategies, encouraging readers to cultivate a growth mindset.

Additional Contributions:

In addition to these highlighted titles, several other books have been donated by various alumni, enhancing the library's collection across diverse genres. This initiative not only enriches the academic resources of the college but also reflects the strong bond between the alumni and the institution.

The management, faculty, and students of Ali-Allana College of Pharmacy extend their heartfelt gratitude to all alumni who participated in this generous initiative. These contributions will undoubtedly inspire and benefit current and future students, supporting both their academic pursuits and personal development.

Acknowledgment Ceremony

To honor the donors, a small acknowledgment ceremony is being planned, where their efforts will be recognized and appreciated. This will also serve as a platform to encourage other alumni to contribute towards the betterment of the college.

The college looks forward to more such contributions in the future and remains deeply appreciative of the alumni's unwavering support and dedication.
